A thought
A book
A guide
Remembrance
Of friends
Of places
A purpose
Aln-Ja-Hi
1968

Pathway to Appreciation

Think . . .
Of a busy schedule
Of a friendly smile
Of a cheery hello
Of a helping hand
Of qualities rarely found
And always remembered
A friend who understands
A sincere concern for students
And for their future
All this and more . . .
To Mrs. Sue Harris,
Guidance Counselor
A small portion
Of our gratitude

A special place
 A special time
 A very special someone
 Memories of never forgotten events
 The solitude of one
 The company of two
 Warm thoughts
 A gentle day
 A feeling of satisfaction
 And sheer contentment

An idea
A goal
A beginning
Conflicts
The urge to quit
The willingness to go on
An accomplishment
Self-satisfaction
A rewarding experience

Active, alive
 The happenings
 High-strung spirit
 A winning know-how

Effort
Cooperation
Living each moment
With each moment bringing
The threshold of another

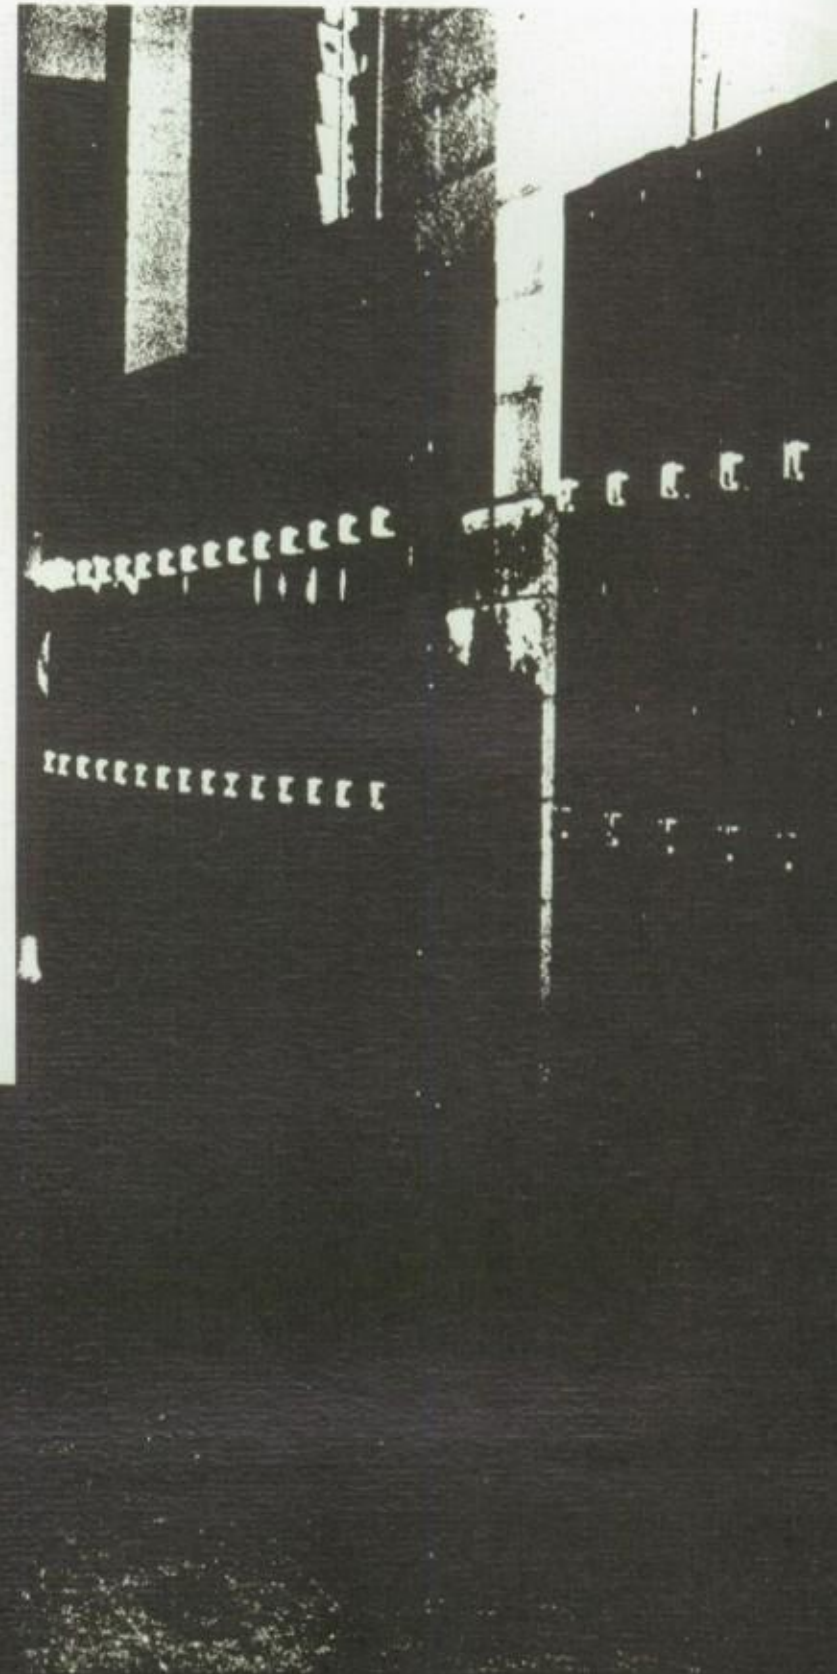

Practice, practice, practice
Constantly striving for perfection
A dream
Success, failure,
But always trying again

The Lights to

Guiding, teaching
And sometimes learning themselves
Opening minds to reality
Always caring . . .
Usually for the ungrateful
But most of all . . .
Just being friends

Competition

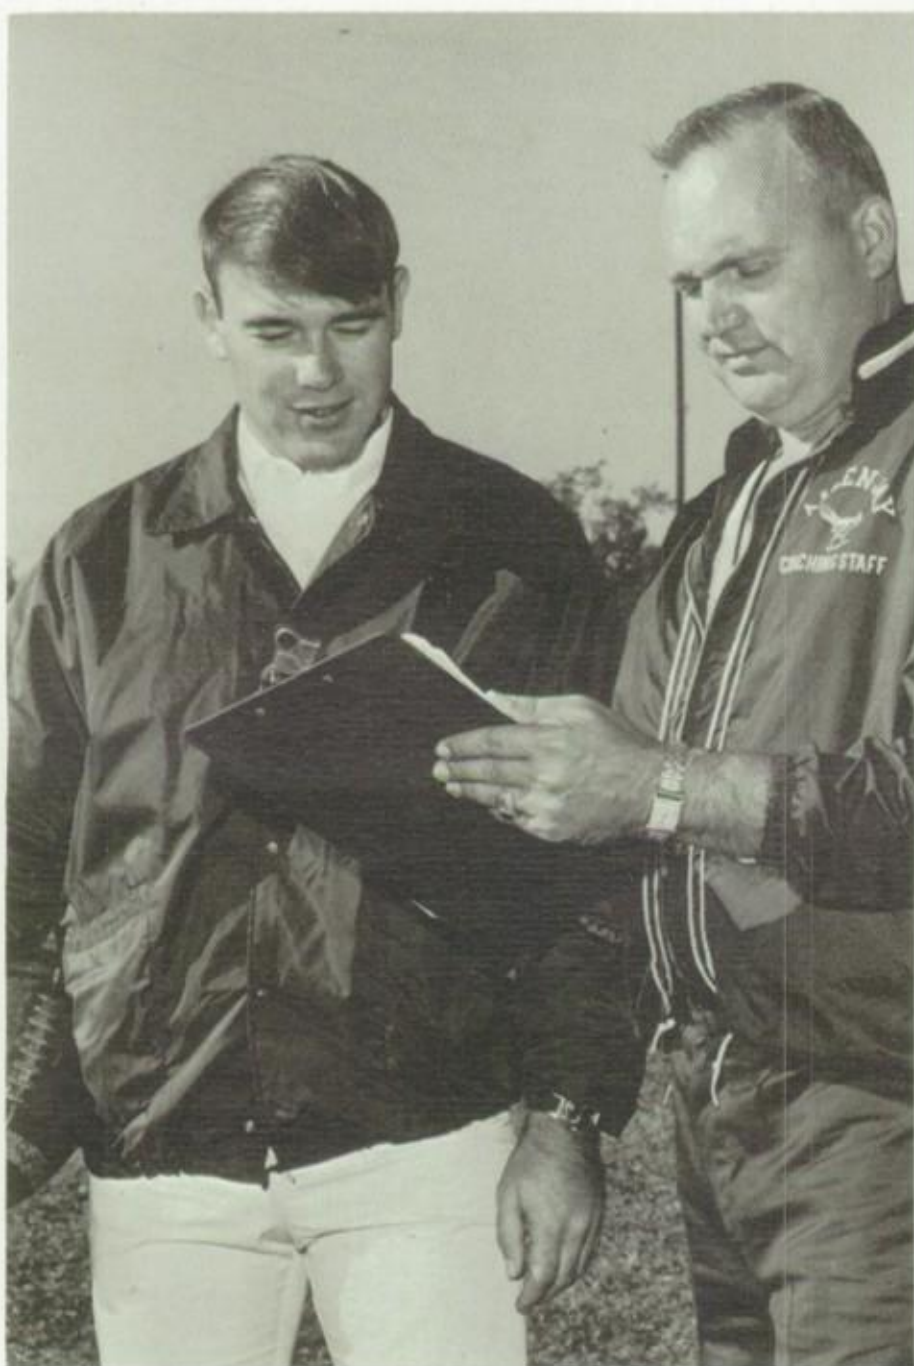

The Football Team Finishes 7-2-1 Season

The 1967 Allen Jay football campaign was, as usual, very successful! Coach Younts and Coach Wallace led the flying Jaybirds to a 7-2-1 season. The team scored over 30 points six times during the season. The squad consisted of 10 seniors, 8 juniors, 5 sophomores, and 4 freshmen.

First row, 1 to r: Johnny Smith, Ronnie Prevatte, Steve Barnes, Gary Meredith, Jerry Whitfield, Randle Chandler, Winston Moody, Randy Johnson, Mike Coltrane, Donald Snider.

Jaybird mentors Mr. Ronnie Wallace and Mr. Tommy Younts ponder over the problem of another team out to get the Jaybirds.

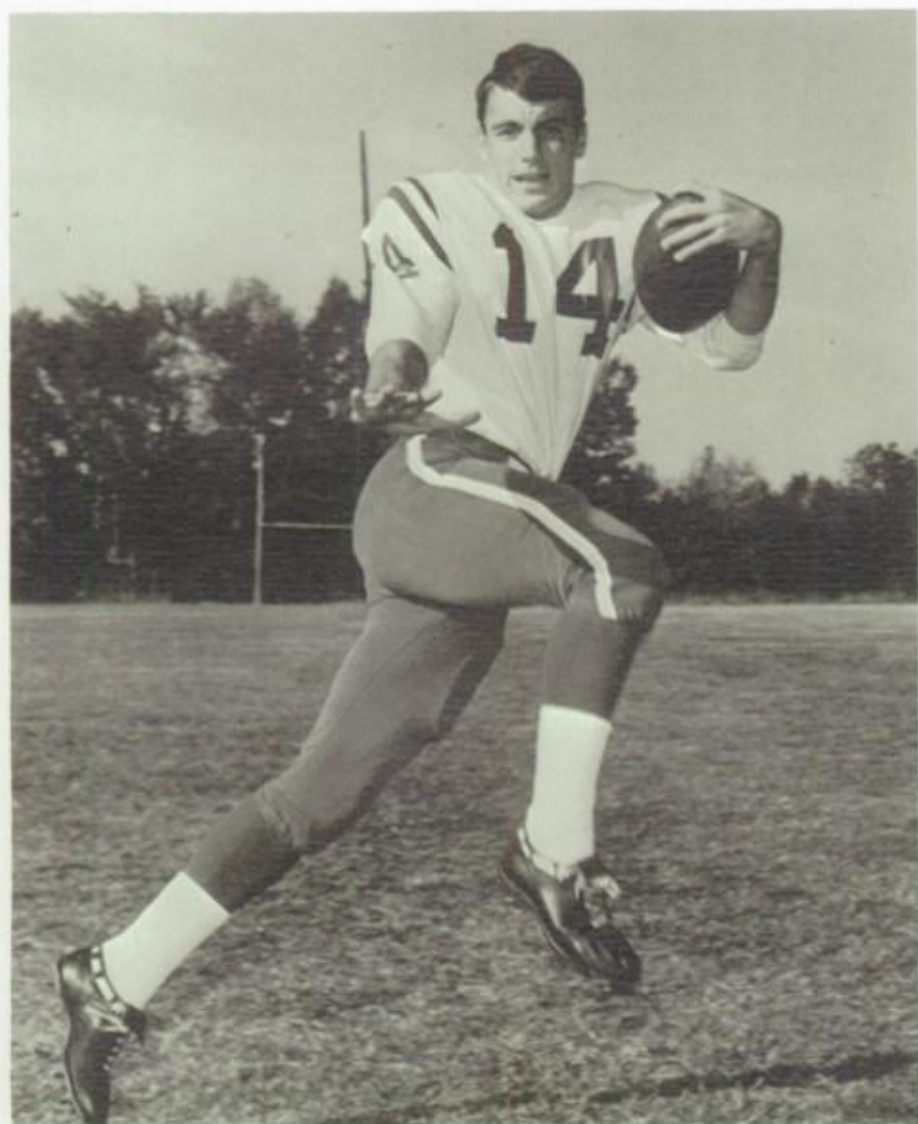

Always ready with equipment when needed was manager Billy Horn.

There was fine team spirit on this year's team. Each member of the team contributed his share in the team effort that is so characteristic of Allen Jay football teams. Coaches Mr. Younts and Mr. Wallace should be commended for the time and effort they gave to make the season a success.

Second row, 1 to r: Ricky Zachary, Skipper McLamb, Keith Smith, Gene Redding, Mike Johnson, Jeff Brewer, Chris Farlow, Joe Ridge, Tom Rees.

Co-Captain Jerry Stout repeated as all-conference halfback.

Co-Captain Randy Johnson was honorable mention all-conference halfback.

Fired-up team ready for another half of Jaybird action.

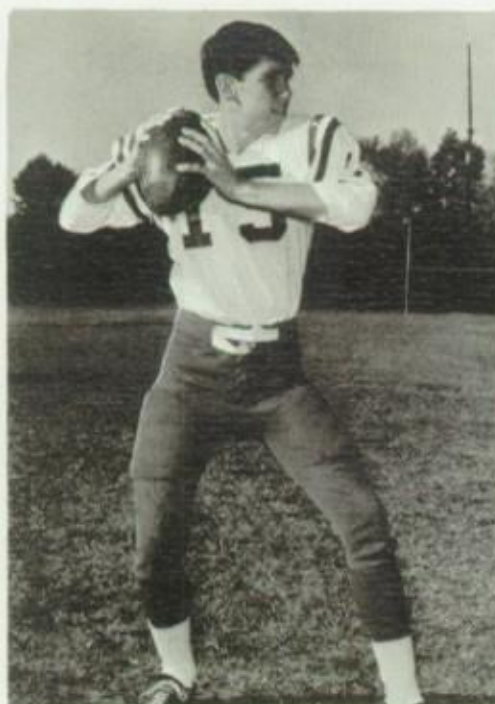

Senior tackle Tommy McRae gets ready for action.

Senior guard Clark Coltrane shows his form in becoming all-conference guard.

Senior tackle Rick Zachary blocked his way to all-conference tackle.

Senior quarterback John Ellington is set to throw the bomb.

Senior end Danny Nunn was tough with the ball in his hands.

Senior end Tom Rees goes high to make a spectacular grab.

Sophomore fullback Gary Meredith romped and stomped to all-conference recognition.

Junior guard Johnny Smith was tough in the center of that line.

Junior center Joe Ridge was even meaner than this at times.

Ten Seniors Pace the J-Birds

Tom McRae clears the way for Gary Meredith.

Junior quarterback Skip McLamb demonstrates his throwing ability.

Senior tackle Randle Chandler gets ready to mash an opponent.

Senior guard Ronnie Prevatte braces himself against the pass rush.

Junior center Chris Farlow prepares to center the ball.

Junior guard Jeff Brewer was always ready for action.

Fourteen Meet the Challenge . . .

"Our team is G-R-E-A-T"—So goes the cheer, and so goes the season of the Allen Jay lassies. The year began slow for Allen Jay's girls. However, through hard work and determination, the lassies came out on top with a tie for first place in the conference.

"You're not getting this ball!"

Miss Kay Yow, Allen Jay's very successful coach led the team to another winning season.

Co-captain Barbara Draughn combined ball handling and good shooting.

Co-captain Debbie Lawson was this year's leading rebounder.

Debbie Madden was the manager of this year's team.

of a Rugged Year

L to R: Betty Carrol, Jean Thomas, Ann Deaton, Kay Deaton, Donna Sue Bundy, Barbara Coltrane, Vickie Ellington, Linda

Proctor, Debbie Bundy, Janice Cox, Deana Stout, Debbie Lawson, Barbara Draughn, Helen Flowe.

A Quitter Never Wins, and . . .

Vickie Ellington showed a great deal of hustle and determination throughout the season.

A cooperative spirit,
Determination plus skill,
Progressing with time,

Long practices,
Crippled Jaybirds,
Yet flying high for success.

Barbara Draughn holds the ball out of the reach of an aggressive opponent.

Guard Helen Flowe usually got the tough defensive assignments.

Rover Ann Deaton aims for two.

Forward Donna Bundy lays it up for two.

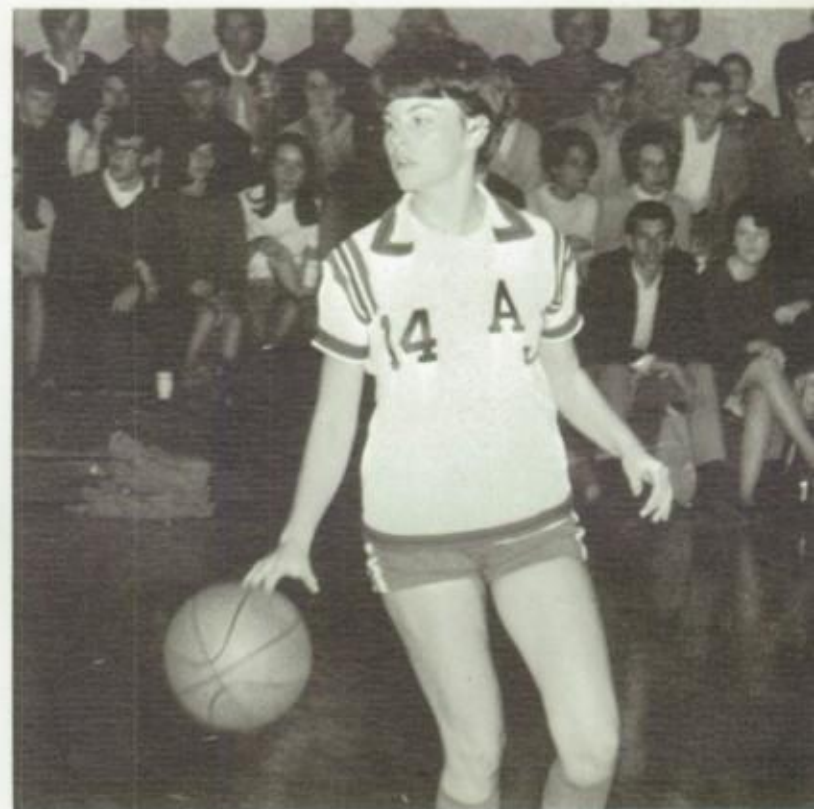

A Winner Never Quits

Guard Jean Thomas begins the fast break with a pin-point pass.

Betty Carroll used her outstanding ability, both on offense and defense.

Two All-Conference
One Honorable Mention
Five graduate

Forward Debbie Bundy watches the flight of the ball towards the basket.

A.J.'s Short but Fiery Cagers . . .

Coach Bill Guy checks his line-up in preparation for the Jaybirds next opponent.

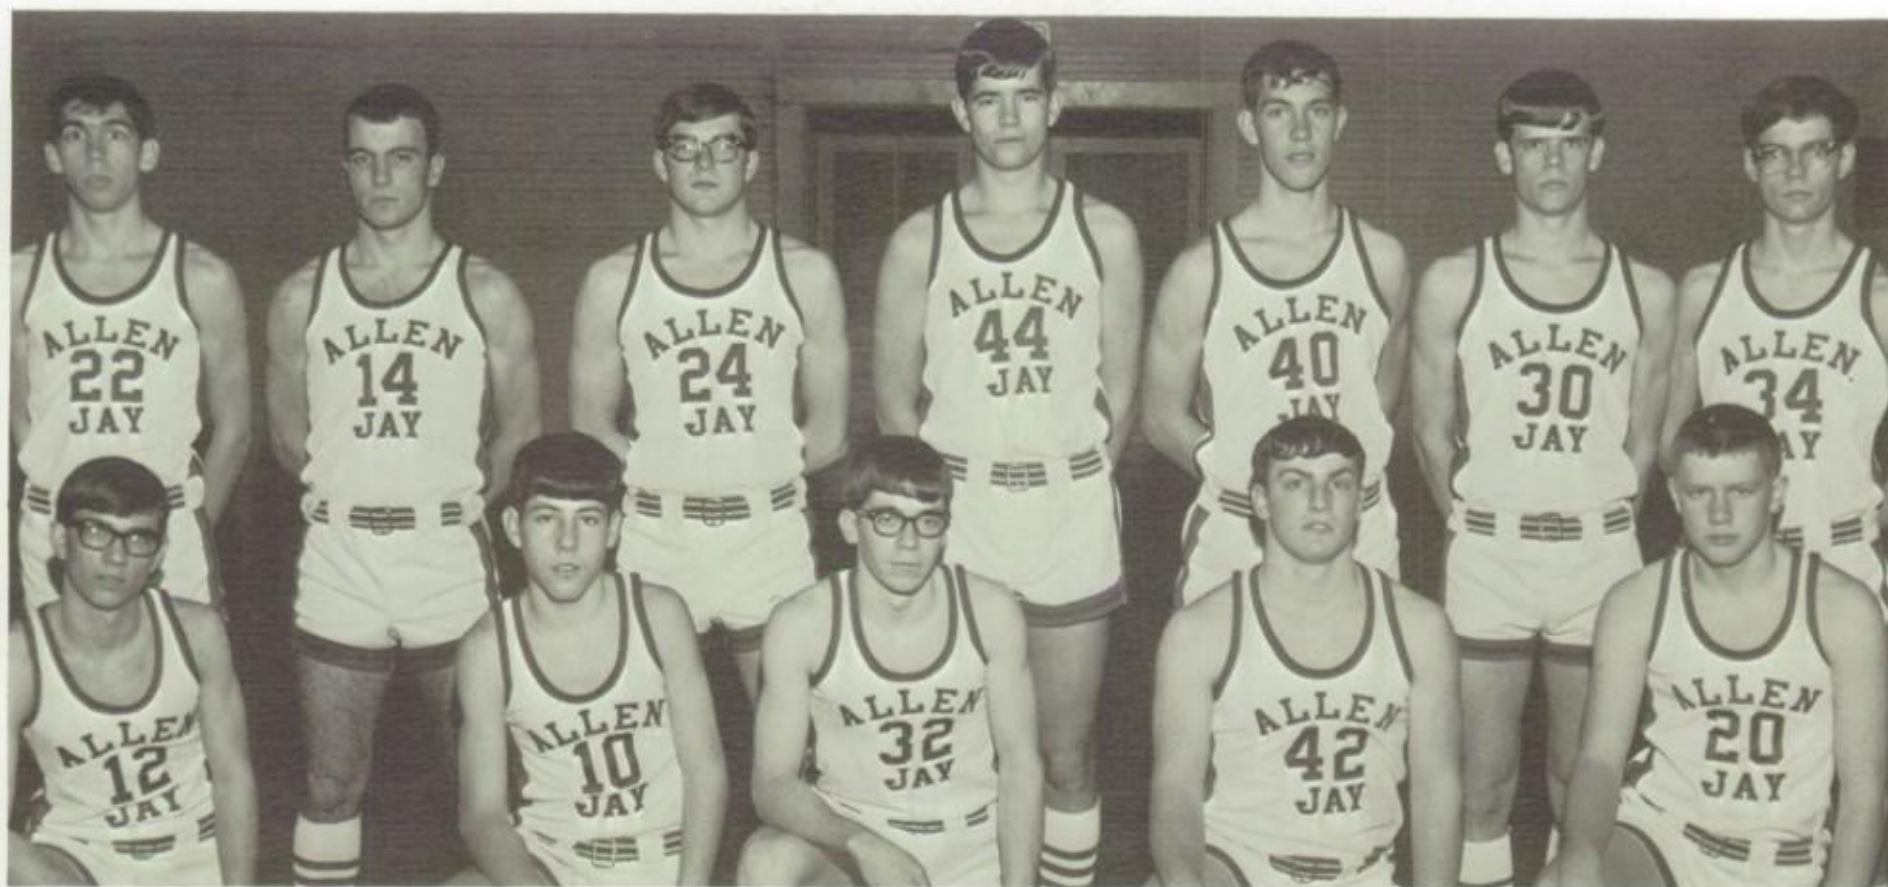

The Jaybird cagers scrapped hard on the court this year. The team was composed of four seniors, six juniors, one sophomore, and one freshman.

Billy Horn took care of the managing chores for this year's club.

Does anyone happen to know the name of the blonde sitting in the third row of the balcony?

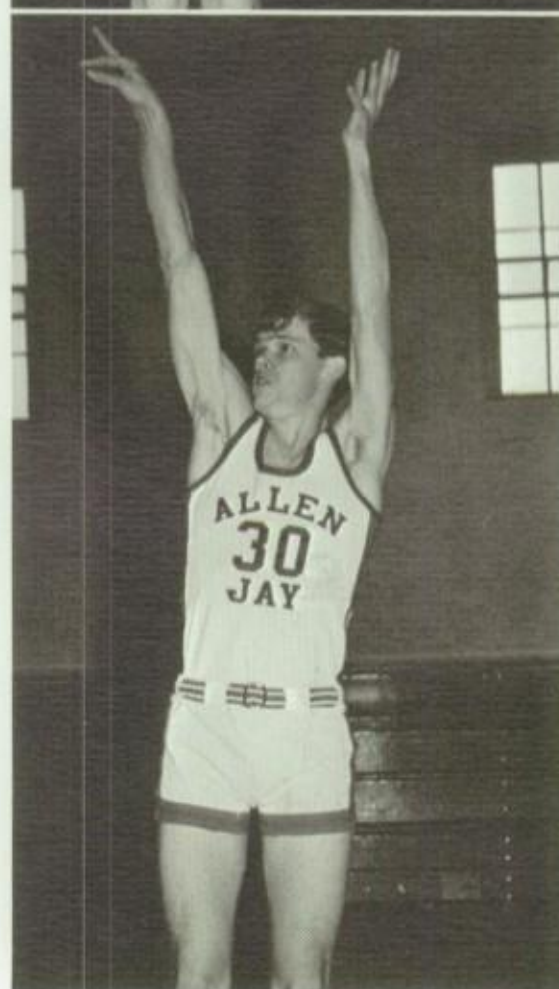

... Prove Themselves on the Hardwood

Hard work,
Ability and hustle,
Good team spirit,
Willingness to sacrifice,
A few Suicides,
The end of the season.

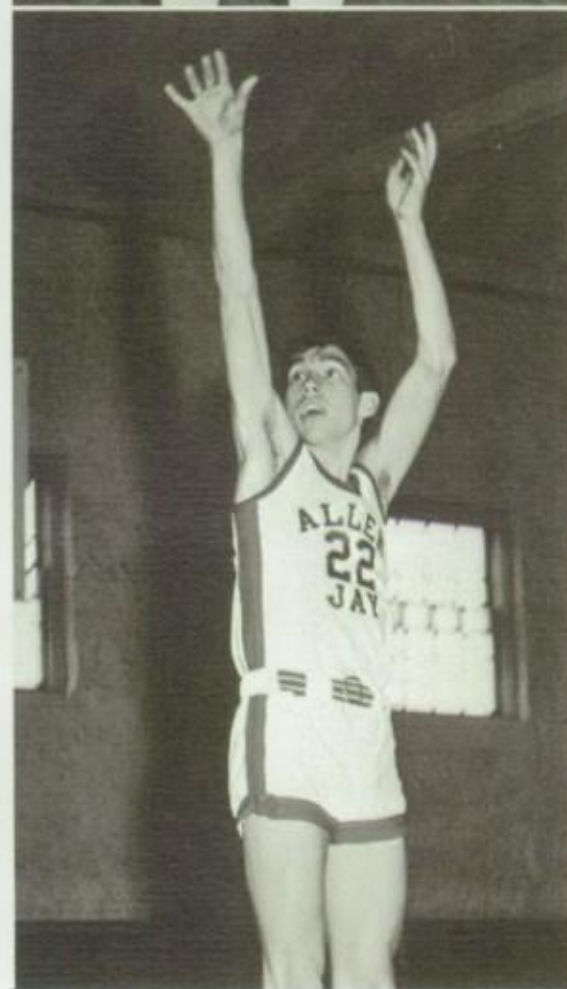

Skip McLamb demonstrates that magnetic attraction of his.

Senior forward Clark Coltrane goes high on the boards to tally two!

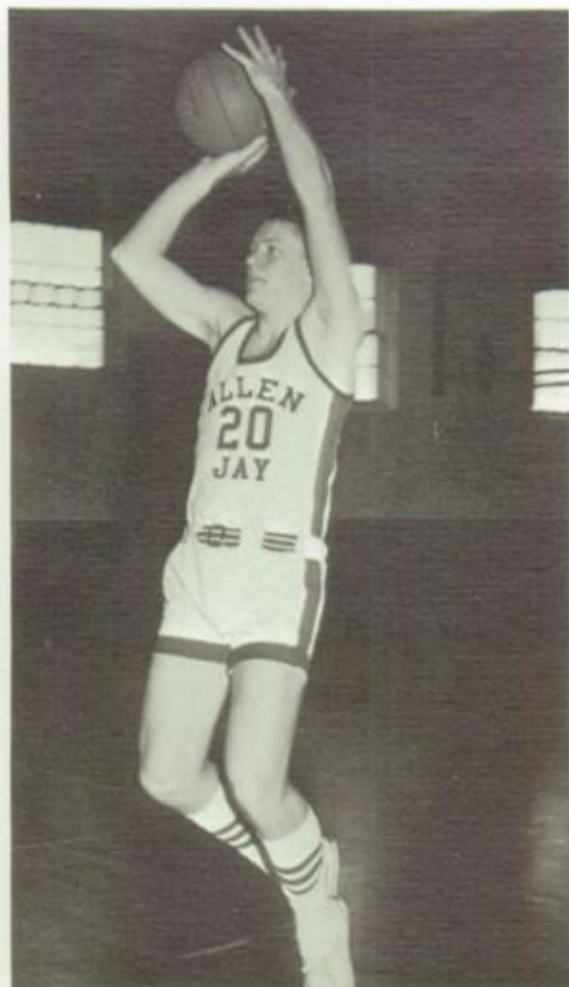

Senior center Danny Nunn was an All-Conference honorable mention selection.

Senior forward Jerry Stout agrees that two is better than one.

Senior guard John Ellington shows the fine shooting form that won him a spot on the All-Conference team.

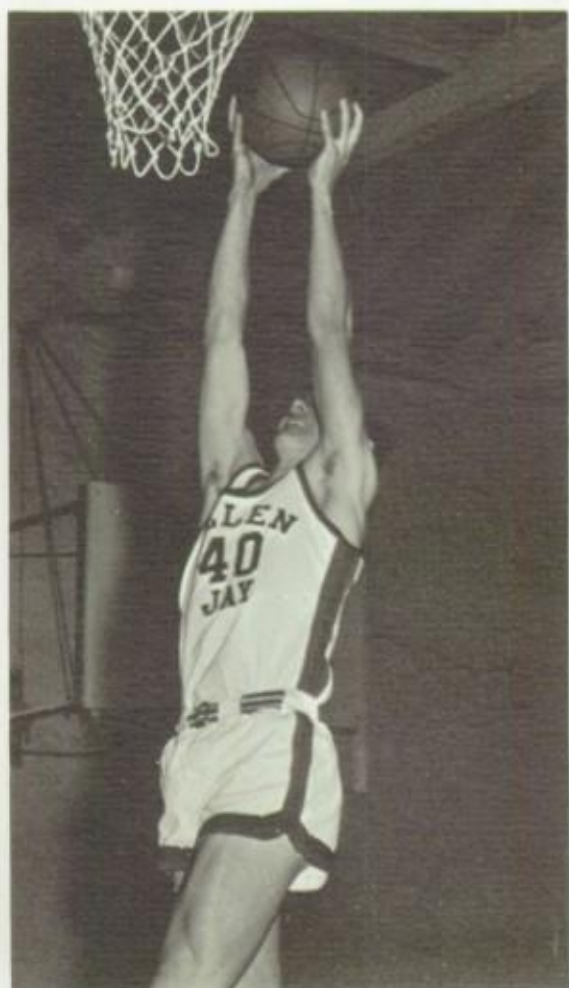

Junior guard Skip McLamb shoots his patented jumper.

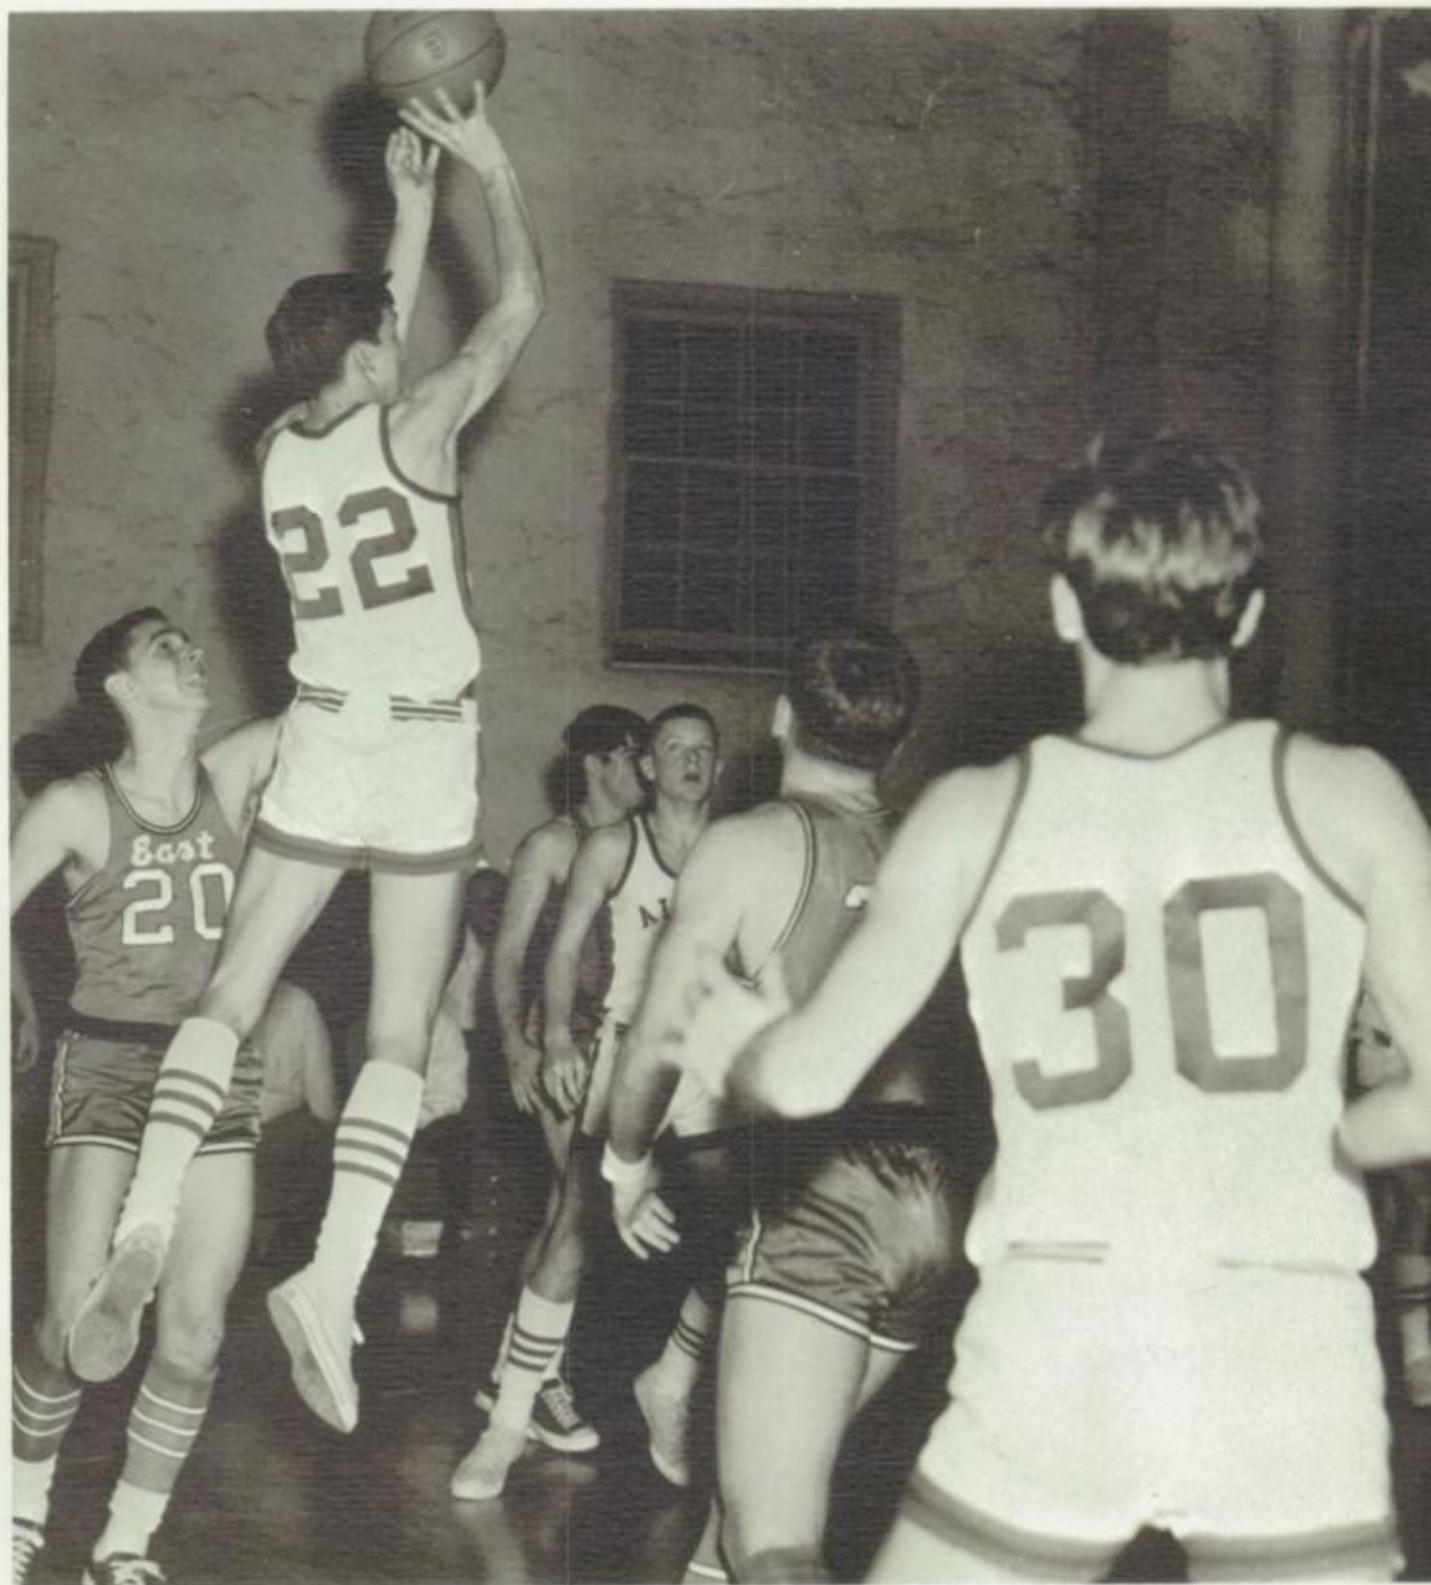

Spirit is the Key.

One All-Conference,
One Honorable Mention,
Four who graduate,

Seven who return,
A good J.V. team,
Wait until next year!

Freshman Gary Thayer goes high to capture a rebound.

What is it that everybody is looking at?

Baseball 1968 . . .

The 1968 baseball team, under the leadership of Mr. Hill, their new coach, worked hard this year. Good sportsmanship and skill helped the Jaybirds along.

Managing the baseball team, Billy Horne was quite dependable.

First row, 1 to r: Gary Meredith, Winston Moody, Dale Allen, Curtis Kiser, Larry Cowan, Randy Johnson, Chris Morton, Randle Chandler. Second row, 1 to r: Larry Davidson, Johnny Smith, Keith Carter, Ricky Zachary, Jerry Stout, Clark Coltrane, Roger Skeen, Ronnie Prevatte, John Ellington.

The Spring Sport

Last year's leading hitter, Randy Johnson, was selected as team captain this year.

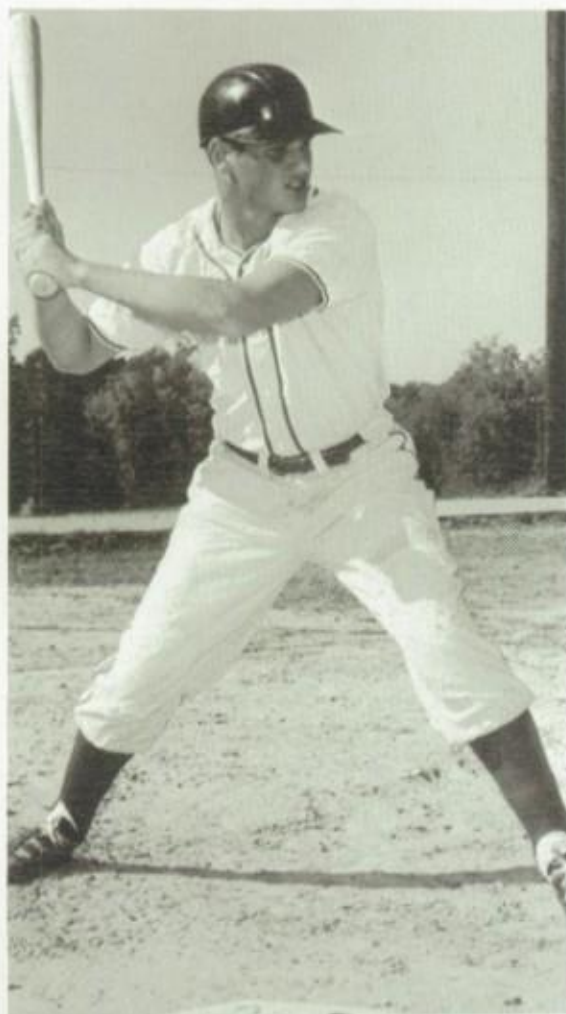

The runner is out and there are big grins all around.

Everyone lines up for a cut at the ball. The boys are playing basehit, one of their favorite games.

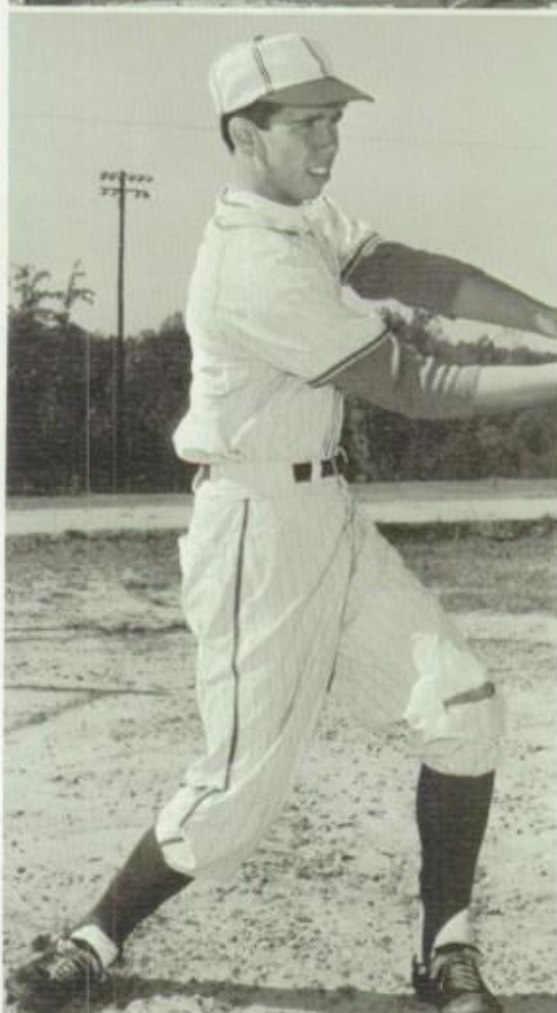

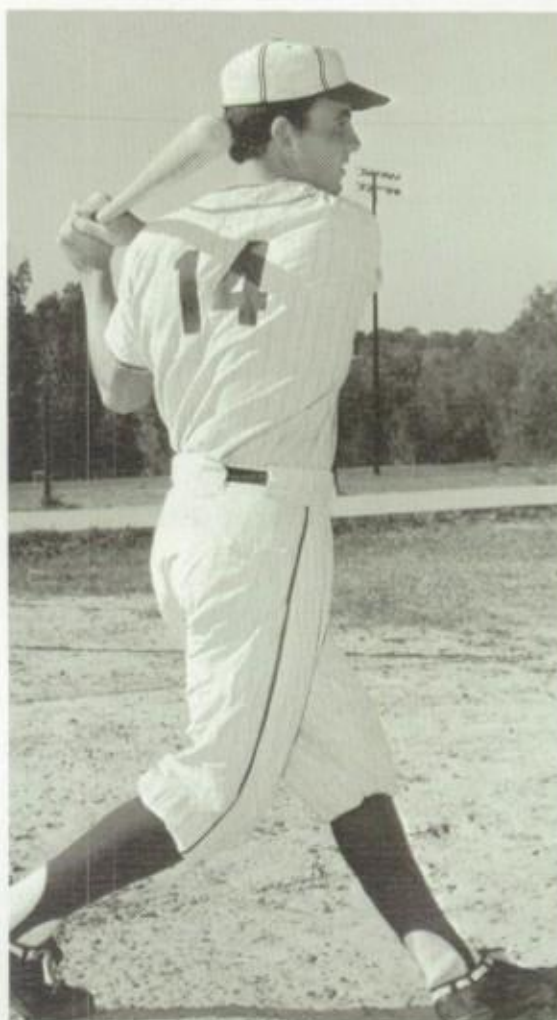

These are the boys that led the Jaybird team in 1968. Most of the boys had played two or three years before this year. Spirit was great and hopes were high as the boys began the season.

Rightfielder Ricky Zachary carries a big stick for the Jaybirds.

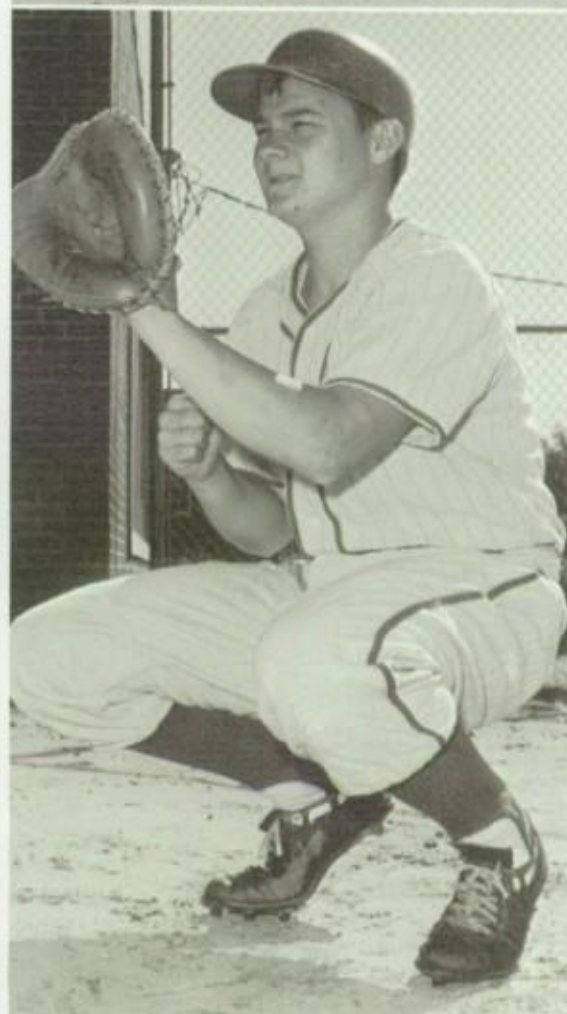

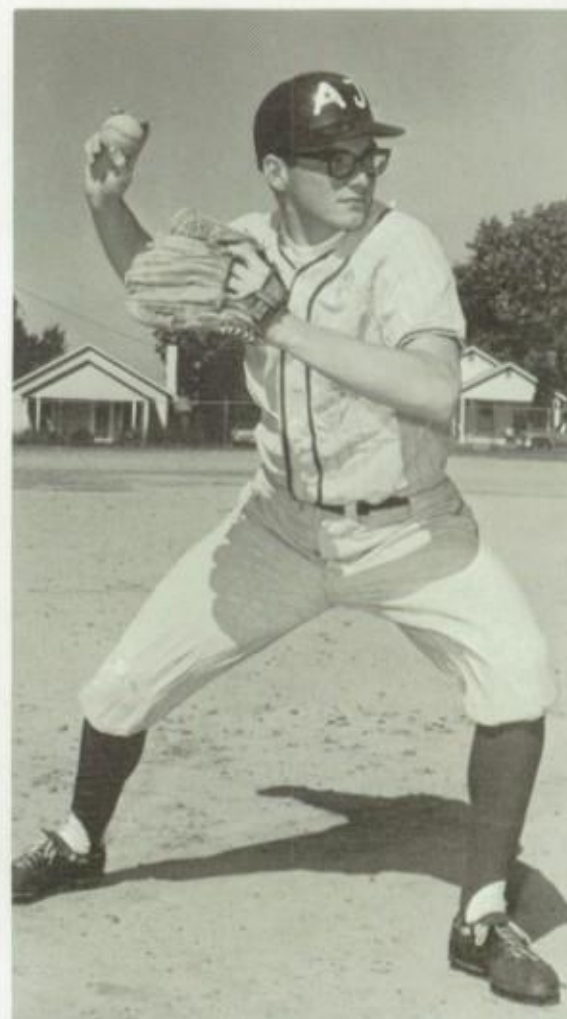

Pitcher Gary Meredith eyes the plate while in the wind-up.

Shortstop Jerry Stout is capable with both glove and bat.

Centerfielder John Ellinton takes a cut at the ball.

Third baseman Clark Coltrane is set to rifle one across the diamond.

Catcher Ronnie Prevatte gets set to hold the runner on first.

Hustle, Desire, Determination

Catcher Winston Moody eyes the mound in preparation for the pitch.

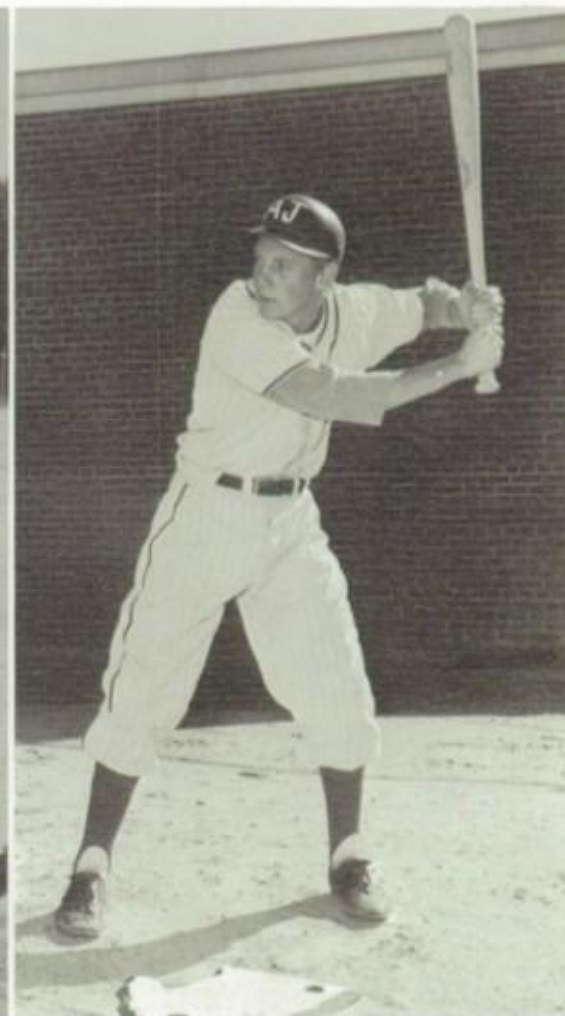

Everyone tries to stay loose before the ball game.

First baseman Keith Carter was a hard swinger at the plate.

Pitcher Larry Davidson could always be counted on for a good performance.

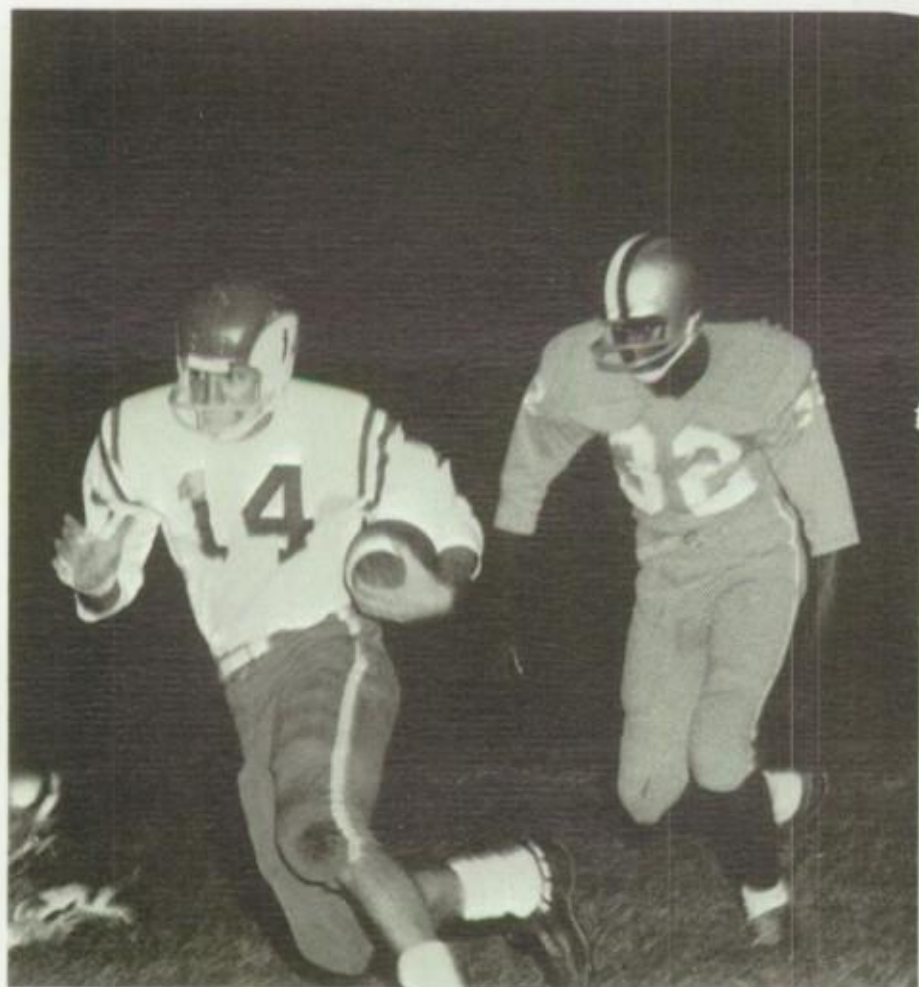

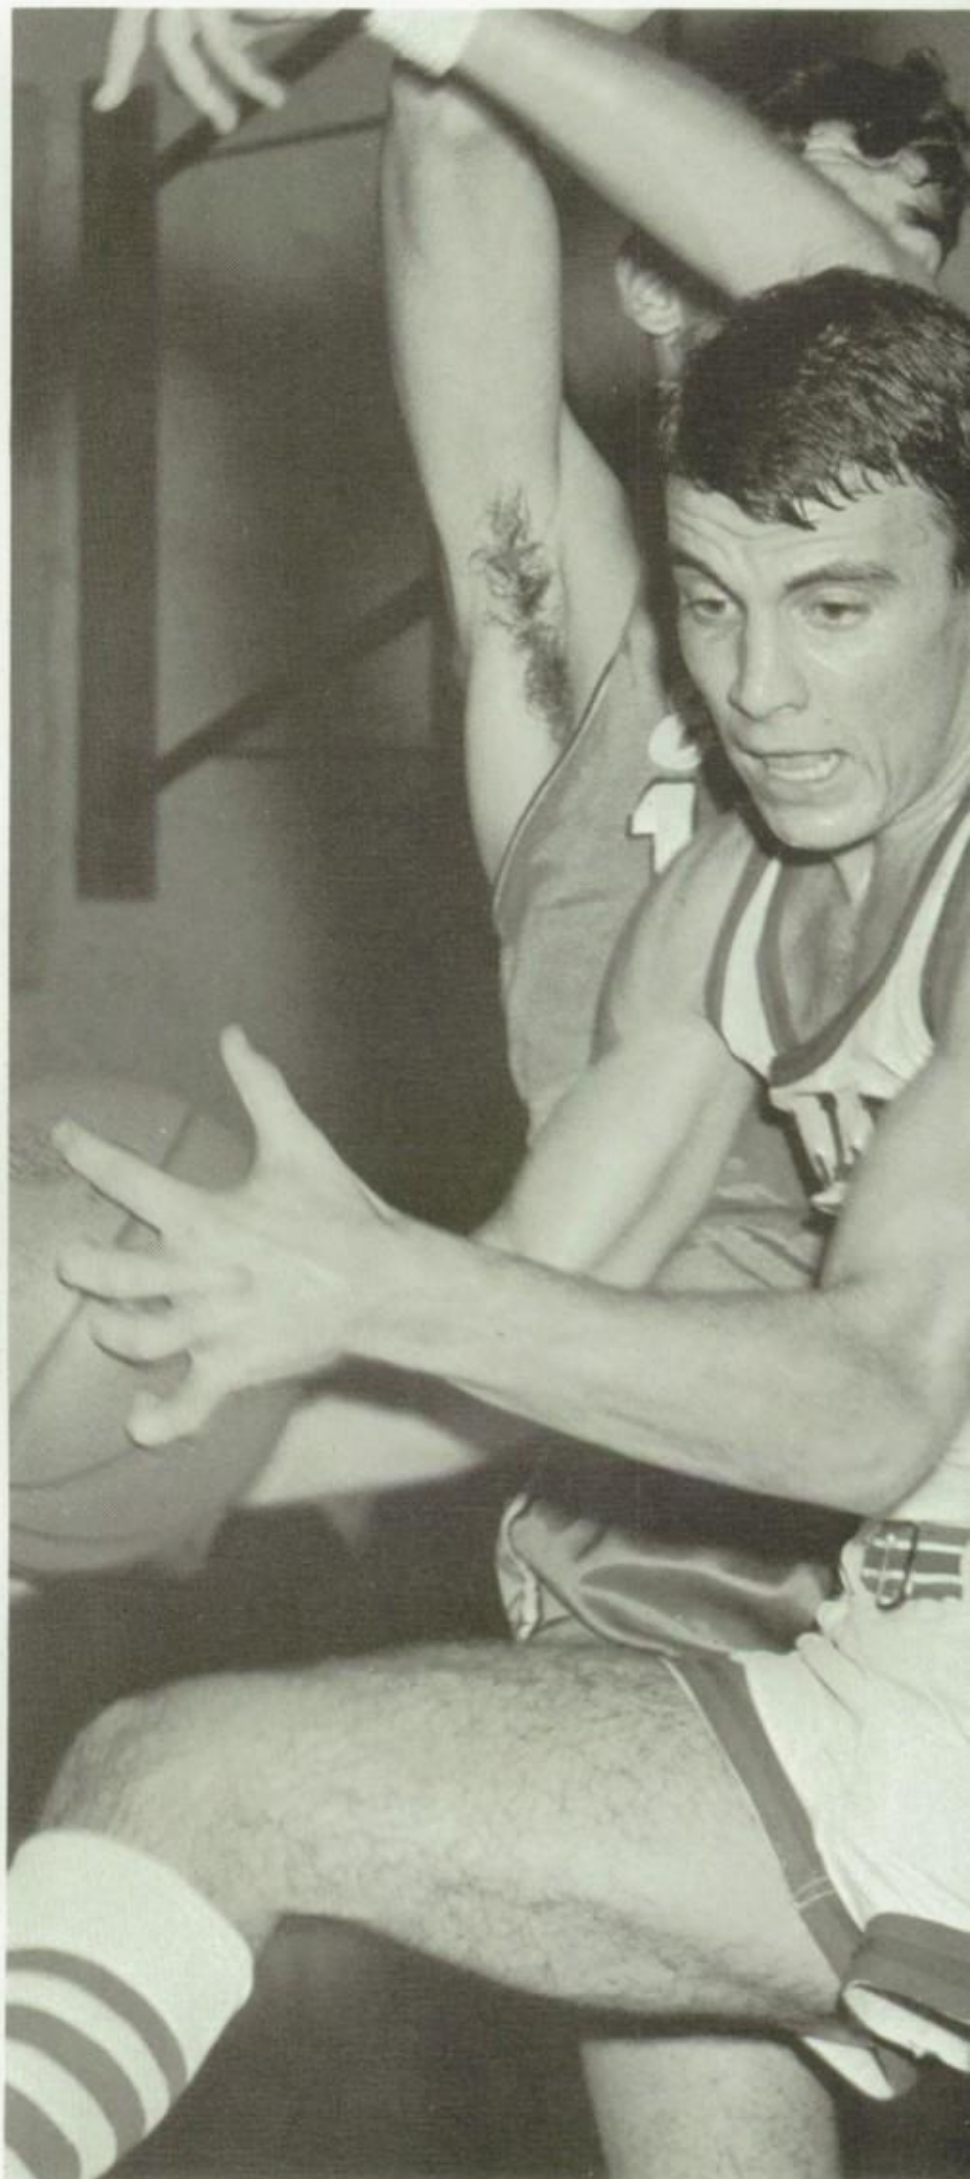

Second baseman Roger Skeen Demonstrates the stance that made him a feared hitter.

Athletics

What's up coaches!

Actually I never seriously considered ballet.

What was that? I don't know! Something fast!

in Review

Wait a minute! Two is company and three is a crowd.

Well, there's at least one volunteer!

Would someone point me toward the first green?

Always there with the cheers were these Jaybird lassies. Their hard work and loyalty always managed to glow through the darkness of an occasional upset of the Jaybirds. We, the student body, hope that next years group will be as great as this year's.

Cathy,

Well finally our school years have grown to and end. It just doesn't seem real. I have enjoyed knowing you in the past years. Your friendship will always linger in my mind. I want to wish you the best of luck in the future and especially with Johnny. Be good and don't ever forget me. When Johnny comes you'll ^{will} have to come see me and Roger, or come before if you want to. Best of luck to a great girl.

Love,
Shelley '68'

Dear Cathy,

The chats every morning this year, and all the little things through the years mean so much now and will mean more later.

Best Luck to great girl -

Your friend,

Eppie Snider

Cathy,

Not much longer and we'll be walking down the aisle. I'm going to miss everybody. I wish you were going to U.S. with me. Remember the times we used to ^{double} date together. It's funny to think about it now. You're a sweet gal and I wish you all the luck in the world.

God Bless,
A friend always,
Bonnie

Cathy,

It's been a great year hasn't it? We don't have much longer but let's make the most of it. Through these past few years your friendship has been a great value to me. I hope it never ends. Best wishes to a great person and a friend I hope I will never lose. Good luck in everything you do, ^{you} deserve the very best.

Love ya,
A friend always
Devin

Cathy,

Well another year is just about
up and it is our last year.
It really doesn't seem like we should be graduating does it? Well Cathy, I hope you and Johnny have found happiness in one another and I hope someday ya,
will be married and happy like Buster and I are. Some weekend or anytime, you and Johnny come to visit us this summer, and we'll have fun.
Well, be good and May God
Be with you always!

Love ya,
A friend always

Cathy,

It has been fun being with you all these years in school together. You are a wonderful friend and I will cherish your friendship for as long as I live.

I wish you all the luck in the world and may you accomplish everything you try to perform.

Have a good summer and don't work too hard.

A friend

Cathy,

It has ^{been a} great pleasure to have known you these years. I wish you all the happiness in the world.

Be good and may God walk with you down the pathes of success.

A friend,
Vicki
Jill

Cathy,

Do you remember the first grade in Mrs. Widenhouse and Mrs. Crissman's room? One day when Roger Dale had an "accident" and we stayed in the cafeteria, you and I got paddled for talking while we were coloring!

From those memories to the present time, it's been a long twelve years. I can hardly believe we're ready to graduate.

I would like to wish you and Johnny the best of luck. You've got a hard road ahead of you while he's in service; but if I can go through what I have, you'll do okay, too.

Be good and work hard this summer. I'll always treasure your friendship.

A friend always,
Sue Redding
